Apposite Capital Wins “the Private Equity Investor of the Year” Award from HealthInvestor

London, UK – 2nd June 2017. Apposite Capital, the private equity firm specialising in healthcare, has won the “private equity investor of the year” award at the HealthInvestor awards ceremony held on 1st June 2017 at the Grosvenor House Hotel, London. Organised by HealthInvestor magazine, the awards recognise significant achievement and successful investments in the healthcare sector.

Created in 2006, Apposite has been successful in growing high quality healthcare businesses to leaders in their markets. In 2016, Apposite has reviewed over 600 deal opportunities and has made three investments over the last 12 months. Apposite latest investments comprise of:

- Medical Imaging Partnership, a fast-growing UK provider of diagnostic imaging services offering MRI and CT scan as well as teleradiology services
- MC care Holdings, acquisition of miHomecare and Complete Care, the healthcare divisions of Mitie Group plc
- NIM Genetics, a leading genetic diagnostic laboratory based in Spain.

David Porter, Managing Partner of Apposite Capital commented: “We are delighted to have been awarded “private equity investor of the year” and are very pleased with the progress and achievements that we have made over the last 12 months. We believe our sector specialism, global perspective and outstanding network within the healthcare industry provide us significant advantages in sourcing attractive opportunities and growing the value of our portfolio companies. Healthcare continues to be an attractive area and we look forward to continuing to grow emerging businesses into market leaders.”
