

Apposite Capital Wins “Private Equity Investor of the Year” at the HealthInvestor Awards 2018

London, UK – 14 June 2018. Apposite Capital, the private equity firm with an exclusive focus on healthcare, today announces that it won “Private Equity Investor of the Year” at the HealthInvestor awards 2018 for the second successive year. The HealthInvestor awards recognise the achievements of the UK’s health and social care sector.

Apposite Capital is a private equity firm focused exclusively on Healthcare. The firm has experience investing across healthcare services, medical products, pharmaceuticals, digital health and social care. Apposite has been successful growing high-quality healthcare businesses since 2006.

Since the beginning of 2017, the firm has made four new investments in growth businesses, comprising:

- MC Care Holdings, acquisition of miHomecare and Complete Care, the healthcare divisions of Mitie Group plc
- NIMGenetics, a leading genetic diagnostic laboratory
- Swanton Care & Community, a specialist provider of residential care and supported living
- OrthoD, a manufacturer and distributor of specialist orthopaedic medical products and implants

Apposite also recently announced the successful close of Apposite Healthcare Fund II and associated vehicles raising £144.5 million.

Sam Gray, Partner, Apposite Capital said: “New healthcare models and technologies have emerged over the last few years making healthcare investing as attractive as ever. The last 12 months have been tremendous for Apposite Capital marked by our successful recent fundraise. We look forward to continuing to work with and support promising healthcare businesses in delivering better healthcare outcomes for the benefits of all stakeholders.”
