

Apposite Capital Strengthens its Investment Team

Appointment of Lauren Edison as Investment Executive

London, UK – 15th October 2018. Apposite Capital, the private equity firm with an exclusive focus on healthcare, today announces the appointment of Lauren Edison as Investment Executive.

Lauren Edison joins Apposite Capital from Jefferies International where she was a Healthcare Investment Banking Analyst. During her time at Jefferies, she advised on a number of sellside and buy-side European M&A, product licensing and public capital raises across various healthcare sub-sectors including dental, nanomedicine, biopharma and children's services.

David Porter, Managing Partner, said: "I am delighted to welcome Lauren to the Apposite team. Her investment banking expertise, healthcare knowledge and financial skills will be valuable in supporting our investment activities as we continue to deploy and manage Apposite Healthcare Fund II."

Apposite Capital invests solely in healthcare and supports UK and European healthcare companies which have the potential to be leaders in their market. To date, Apposite has made five investments in six companies from Apposite Healthcare Fund II. The group works closely with management teams; providing operational support and strategic guidance as much as capital to build market leading companies.
