

Apposite Capital Wins “Private Equity Investor of the Year” at the HealthInvestor Awards in the Third Consecutive Year

London, UK – 14 June 2019. Apposite Capital, the private equity firm with an exclusive focus on healthcare, today announces that it won “Private Equity Investor of the Year” at the HealthInvestor awards 2019 for the third successive year. The HealthInvestor awards recognise the achievements of the UK’s health and social care sector.

Apposite Capital’s Managing Partner, Sam Gray, said: “The award highlights how thriving was the last 12 months for Apposite. We have successfully raised Apposite Healthcare Fund II, made two new exciting platform investments, completed a number of add-on acquisitions for our existing portfolio, as well as continued to grow the Apposite team.”

Apposite Capital now counts seven investments in its new Fund, across healthcare services, social care, digital health and medical products. Apposite believe in creating competitive advantage for its portfolio through investing in improving the regulatory and operational quality of its businesses and in evidencing improved healthcare outcomes for patients and payers.
