

Apposite Capital-backed Complete Care acquires Amegreen Complex Care making a 5th acquisition for MC Care Holdings

London, UK – 24 September. Apposite Capital, the healthcare specialist private equity investor, today announced that Complete Care Holdings, a fully owned subsidiary of MC Care Holdings, has acquired Amegreen Complex Homecare Ltd. The combined business provides complex homecare services to both adults and children with long term spinal injury, acquired brain injury, respiratory and other neurological conditions. The acquisition expands the geographical reach of Complete Care adding services in the Home Counties and London. Complete Care's current focus of operations is in the Midlands, North West and Wales.

Jonathan Vellacott, CEO of MC Care Holdings commented: "I am delighted to have completed the acquisition of Amegreen Complex Homecare, the 5th acquisition by MC Care Holdings. It further underpins our position as one of the largest UK providers of nurse led complex care at home in partnership with Clinical Commissioning Groups and the individuals we care for."

MC Care Holdings consists of Complete Care Holdings Ltd, a national provider of nurse led complex care at home, Noble a live-in provider and MiHomecare a domiciliary care provider.

Amegreen Complex Homecare was advised by MSNI Consultancy and Spratt Endicott Solicitors.

Complete Care Holdings were advised by Anthony Collins Solicitors.
