

Riverdale Healthcare Announces Latest Acquisition

London, UK – 1 February 2022. Independent dental group, Riverdale Healthcare, has announced its first acquisition of the new year with the arrival of Lion House Dental Practice into the group.

Located in the market town of Richmond in North Yorkshire, Lion House Dental Practice offers both NHS and private dental treatment to patients across the North of England.

Speaking of the acquisition, Chief Investment Officer for Riverdale, Chris Aylward, said, “This is another exciting investment and strengthens our proposition in the North Yorkshire region.

Having practices in close proximity to each other is conducive to delivering outstanding care to the people in our communities. Lion House Dental Practice has been established for over 25 years; therefore, we are delighted to be welcoming their experience into the group.”

Chris added, “The acquisition has been a smooth process. The teams at Apposite Capital, Pinsent Masons and Hazlewoods have provided an outstanding service as we continue our growth strategy.”

This latest acquisition takes Riverdale to 35 practices plus a dental laboratory.

Emma Barnes, Chief Executive Officer for Riverdale, said, “The addition of Lion House Dental Practice emphasises how we continue to implement our growth strategy. We are pleased to welcome them into our great team at the start of what promises to be an exciting year ahead.”
